Pennsylvania Election.

That Buchanan has been defeated in Pennsylvania, we have no doubt. We believe that the opposition ticket has succeeded by a decided majority. We so believe, not only from the returns, but from private information on which we rely.

The first dispatch of the latter class, from the Central Republican Committee of Philadelphia, received last evening, reads as follows:

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.

Pennsylvania sends to Illinois greeting! The Union State ticket is elected. A few counties are still to be heard from, but cannot alter the result. Majority, three to four thousand.

The second dispatch is from the New York Tribune office, and reached us about 10 P. M. It says,

New York, Oct. 16.

It is very close. The official only can certainly determine. We think we have two or three thousand majority—Chicago Tribune of this morning.

We still adhere to our opinion that the Fremont State ticket in Pennsylvania is elected by a handsome majority. Nothing definite from Indiana.

The Congressional Candidates in the First District.

We yesterday considered the comparative merits of Messrs. Potter and Hadley, as men, without respect to their political principles.

We now call attention to their position and qualifications as politicians, and exponents of two great political parties. And truth requires us to say that they are fair representatives of the principles of their respective parties—Judge Potter truly represents the sentiments of the Philadelphia Platform, and Mr. Hadley as truly represents the creed of the Cincinnati Platform. Judge Potter has maintained a straight forward course, sustaining the same principles to-day, that he has since he began his political existence. Mr. Hadley is in the complete tool and slave of party, and has changed as often as the evolutions of party have required him to right about face, with the facility of a well-drilled soldier. When his party was Wilmot Proviso, he was a Wilmot Proviso man. When it asserted the right and duty of Congress to exclude Slavery from the Territories, he was for that old Jeffersonian doctrine. When the Nebraska bill was passed, he was as indignant as a mere politician can be, at this outrage upon Freedom, all the while, however, looking simply at its bearing upon the prosperity of the party. When squatter sovereignty because the creed of the Democracy, and Jefferson and all the old Democratic Presidents were thrown overboard, and made to give place to Steve Douglass, Mr. Hadley stepped on to the Cincinnati Platform, and now sustains the very doctrine he formerly opposed, and opposes the principles he formerly sustained, with as much readiness as a Swiss soldier fights for plunder and pay. There is nothing which the party requires him to do which he will not do, and nothing which the party requires him not to do, from which he will not abstain. When with Anti-Slavery men he can be Anti-Slavery, and make just as good promises as any Republicans, and when with men of his own stripe, rejoice with them at his success in soft-sapping the Anti-Nebraska voters. As thorough a party hawk as ever drew in the party traces, and as ready to resort to all those low political tricks which politicians boast of afterward, but of which upright men are ashamed. Such a man is JACKSON HADLEY.

On the great question of slavery or freedom for Kansas and the territories, Judge Potter presents the pledges of a whole life that he can be trusted in all contingencies, to speak and vote and act for Liberty. Every man who votes for him knows that he is voting for a man who would suffer crucifixion sooner than betray the cause of Freedom.

But on this issue Jackson Hadley is thoroughly identified with the Slavery party, of which Frank Pierce, Steve Douglass, Atchison and Stringfellow are the acknowledged leaders and representatives, and he would do their bidding, if elected, as readily as a slave on a cotton plantation will obey the commands of his overseer. He would vote for the Border Ruffians every time, and take part with the scoundrels who have blocked up the national highway to Kansas, driven the Free State men out of the Territory, sacked and plundered their towns, killed their men, ravished their women, and committed outrages at which fiends might blush, and who would not permit his own constituents and the members of his own party from Wisconsin, to settle down peacefully in Kansas, unless they would swear to be true to the Border Ruffian interest, and help make Kansas a Slave State.

We know he will pretend otherwise, during this canvass, and so did Daniel Wells two years ago. He pledged himself by public handbills circulated all over the districts upon election, to go for the repeal of the Nebraska bill, but after his election he voted with his party, and his last vote was given to put into the President's hands the treasury of the nation to crush out the last hope of freedom in Kansas, enforce the infamous laws made by Missouri Ruffians for that Territory, and establish them there at the point of the bayonet. We ask all who know the two men, if Daniel Wells, Jr., is not as reliable and trustworthy a man in all the relations of life as Jackson Hadley? If his private word and his public pledges would not be readily taken as Jackson Hadley's? Probably Mr. Well's meant to redeem the promises he made then. But the bonds and discipline of party were stronger than his pledges, and he was obliged to yield or become an outcast from his party.

And so it would be with Jackson Hadley. He should be elected, whatever his promises before election. He could not live at Washington, as a democrat, unless he obeyed the behests of his party. And he would be obliged either to violate any promises to go for freedom in Kansas or in the Territories, or join the Republicans, and be ostracized from his party. There is no middle ground, and we would not believe his anti-Slavery promises, however strongly or publicly made—not even if he swore to them on a stack of bibles as big as a meeting house. He is thoroughly identified with the Border Ruffians, and will act through out with the party which would mob, plunder, shoot and kill the people of his own district who should visit Kansas or the Slave States, unless they would deny the Declaration of Independence and go in for eternal slavery.

Will the people of this district send such a man to Congress? We trust not.

INCREASE OF BANK CAPITAL.—The Farmers and Miller's Bank of this city, are about to increase their capital from $250,000 to $500,000; the old stock holders to be entitled to the new stock in proportion to what they hold of the old, and the subscriptions to be made on or before the 25th of next month. It has paid six per cent, semiannual dividends, and divided 10 per cent extra, making 22 per cent in all. Money, legitimately, is worth 10 per cent. The success of this bank shows that banking in Wisconsin, is more profitable than almost any other business. The President of the Bank is E. D. Holton, and the Cashier, H. H. Camp, both thorough business men.

La Grange Oct. 15th 1856.

We have formed a Fremont Club in this town (La Grange,) Wm. Houghton President and Thos. Waterman Secretary. At our first meeting we raised over $100, to aid Kansas, and at which we appointed a committee of 2 to canvass our town, and to report at the next meeting, which resulted in raising $100 more, making in all some $200, out of which we sent through our Treasurer Mr. Chas. P. Ellis, $173 to aid Kansas, and the balance will be sent as soon as paid in. Our town probably will poll some 250 votes in this coming election; and out of which I do not think there will be over one dozen Buchanan votes. So you see we are all ready for Fremont and Dayton, without a single man for Fillmore. We have raised a Pole in the centre of our town, with a flag up on which is inscribed "Fremont and Dayton, and no Slavey Extension," Hurrah for Fremont and Liberty!

THOS. WATERMAN.

The Mineral Point Democrat thinks "it is high time that we had a few Democratic churches, and that our Democratic papers should take up religious as well as secular matters." We think so too. Especially if its religion could be Christian, instead of the Border Ruffian, slave-eating kind.

COUNTY SEAT OF JEFFERSON CO.—J. Jefferson county having been divided, an act has been passed providing for the people to vote upon the question of removing the county seat, whereupon the Watertown Democrat expatiates upon the advantage of that place for the proposed location, and the citizens of Jefferson, the present county seat, feel sore and indignant thereat.

BEARS.—These "varmints" are very plenty in Dodge and Jefferson counties. We wish we had time to step out and "scrape an acquaintance" with 'em.

A passenger on the Madison train going west, in attempting to get on the train as it was leaving Fulton Depot, Wednesday evening made a mistake and fell under the cars and had both legs crushed so as to render amputation necessary to save his life.

3d Mr. Potter of Fond du Lac, and Levi Bushard of Oshkosh, a brother of the Governor, have been appointed by him, Directors in the North Eastern Railroad Company.

3d H. A. Tenny is an independent candidate for Assembly in the Madison District.

The Mineral Point Tribune says: "We are told that the Postmaster at Menasha has been removed, for expressing his determination to vote for Fremont."

Duck shooting is now a favorite sport with hunters. The rivers and lakes in this region are covered with these wild fowl. They are said to abound in greater numbers on the Crawfish, this season than ever before. Wild rice grows there in profusion, and the root and berry of this aquatic plant supplies the ducks with a kind of food which they much prefer. We know of one man who shot eighty-three teal in two days, without any help. They are now in fine condition for the table, being sweet, tender and fat.—Watertown Dem.

The fall sown wheat, so far as we have had opportunity to observe, has never come up better than it has this season. All the fields we have seen around here, have a green, thrifty, vigorous appearance, that is most encouraging. Though much of the seed has been put rather earlier than usual in this region, yet so dry has been the weather that it has not got too farward a start.—Watertown Dem.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT.—Last Sunday, about 3 o'clock in the morning, Frederick Bandow was suddenly assaulted on the Cadby street bridge. He was badly hurt, and at one time his life was supposed to be in the greatest danger, but now his recovery is quite probable. Louis Koenzel has been arrested as the supposed assailant, and held to bail to answer the charge made against him in one thousand dollars bond.—Watertown Dem.

We know he will pretend otherwise, during this canvass, and so did Daniel Wells two

LOCAL MATTERS, &c.

Advertisements for the DAILY Free Democrat, in order to insure their insertion to-morrow day, should be handed in by 10 o'clock A. M.

LATENT NEWS !

McSOOLEY & CO., 219 East Water street, and H. W. ANGER, at the Postoffice, have New York papers ready in advance of the mail.

Frederick Douglass.

This gentleman will address the Republicans at the Camp House, on Saturday evening, the 14th of Oct., at half past seven o'clock. He will be here, and let every one be present to listen, who is disposed to learn what Slavery is, from one who has experienced its effects. He has been speaking for Fremont & Dayton in New York, and all who attend will hear a great speech. The Camp shall be warm and comfortable for all.

He will speak at other places, of which notice will be given. H. J. PAIN, Cor. Secy.

POLICE COURT, Oct. 17.

Nancy Carney, intoxicated, (and offends) sent up for 6 months, in default of a fine of $10; Michael Reddy, disorderly, fined $3; P. O'Brien, do. $3; Michael Glen, not guilty, discharged; G. Stahn plead guilty to stealing a carpet bag and contents from G. Delorme, of the value of $15, being of previous good character, fined $5 and costs; D. Sullivan, convicted of aggravated assault and battery upon his wife, sent to jail for 30 days.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY FREE DEMOCRAT, MILWAUKEE, October 17, 1856.

The produce market today is somewhat depressed, owing to the extreme tightness of the money market. The New York market having advanced, dealers have purchased largely, and are obliged to wait for currency. This has given birth to a new slight depression in the market. Clothing and tailoring trade is brisk, and coarse goods are being up with large stocks.
